An idea was born eighteen years ago, an idea that has since grown into a revered tradition of Ottawa Hills. It was in 1940 that the first graduating class decided to prepare a testimonial of their admiration and gratitude for Ottawa Hills High School. This testimonial took the form of a yearbook. Before the wheels of operation could be set in motion, however, the Class of 1941 had to overcome an obstacle; they had to find a suitable, yet symbolic, name for the book. To solve this problem the editorial staff sponsored a student contest for the naming of the yearbook. A committee of seniors selected the best names from those submitted, and these were again voted upon by the student body. Glenn McDaniel, a senior, won the contest with the name Mesasa, denoting one of the last and most powerful Ottawa Indian chiefs. Now equipped with a name, the Class of 1941 set the wheels to turning, stopping them every so often to overcome other obstacles, but constantly progressing until they emerged with the first yearbook of Ottawa Hills, the MESASA.

The Class of 1958 has continued this tradition by preparing a testimonial of their own, designed to show their admiration and gratitude for Ottawa Hills by reflecting the lackadaisical and laborious, the laughable and laudable, life that is led under its protecting care.

Administration

Glancing back over our high school years, the Class of 1958 realizes that it owes a great debt of gratitude to Mr. Ray E. Deardorff, the executive head of our school system. We are grateful to Mr. Deardorff not only because of his service to the school and community, but because of his faith in us as a class, which he has demonstrated in the capacity of a leader, advisor, helper, and trusted friend.

To the Class of 1958:

I am pleased to be able to extend this farewell message to each member of the Class of 1958. One of my greatest pleasures has been in watching you develop through the years, for you have achieved the distinction of being a really outstanding class.

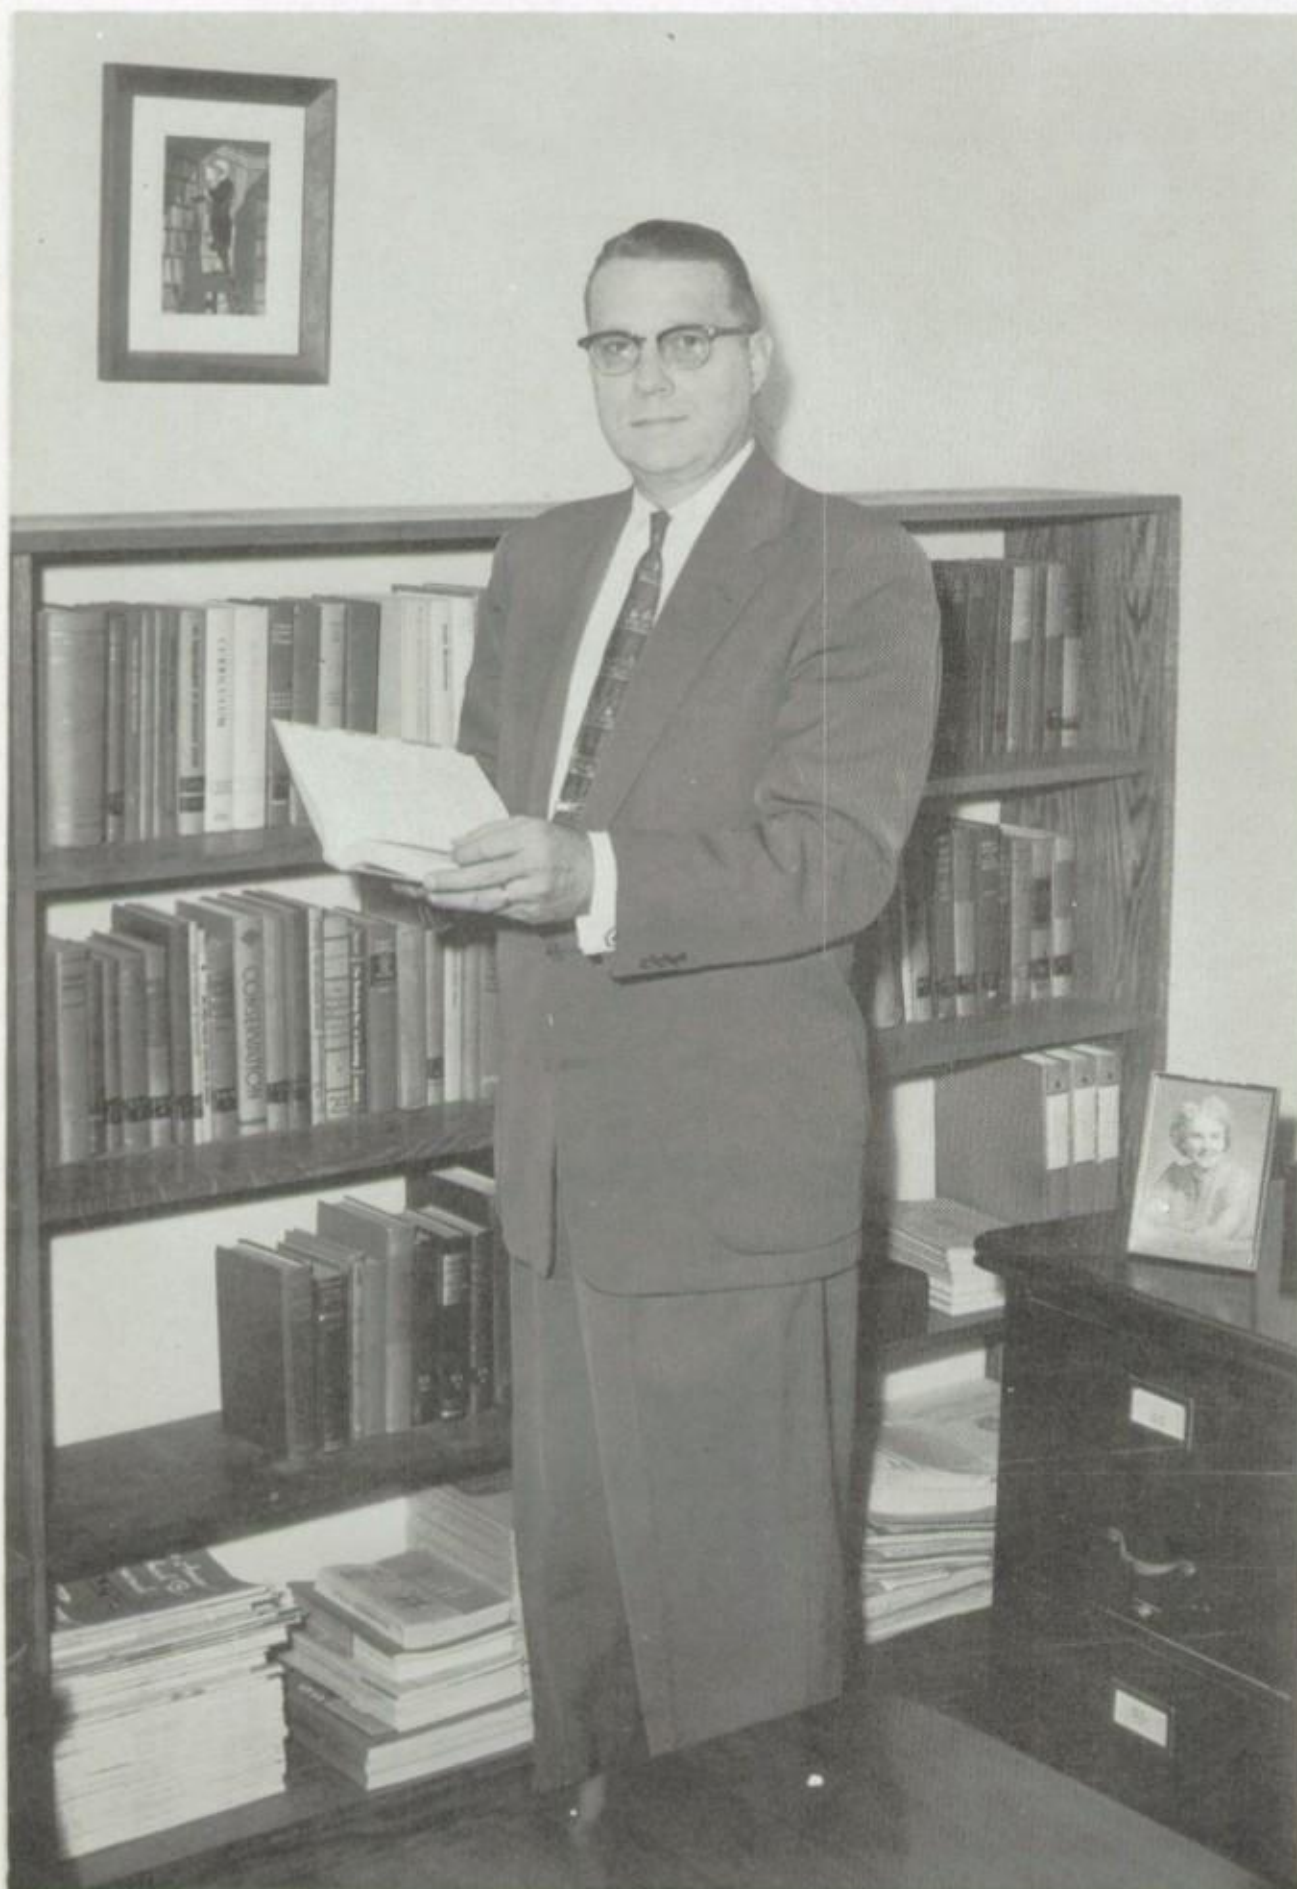

You have compiled a very high academic record; including representation by a large percentage of you on the honor rolls, your high ranking in the State Senior Scholarship Examinations, in which one of you ranked first in the district and fourth in the State, and in which you took eight places of the first ten in the county. Three of you won high recognition on the Merit Scholarship Examinations, and eighteen of you completed the new calculus course, achieving a good academic record. Through your serious and genuine interest in high academic achievement, you have exerted important leadership which has influenced the younger students to emulate your successes.

You have, in addition, participated in a broad sports and activities program, compiling one of the best records in interscholastic sports in the history of our school, and winning District and State honors in the various music contests.

You have indeed made a very fine record, and I am glad for this opportunity to give you my congratulations and wish for you much happiness and success.

Sincerely yours,
Ray E. Deardorff

1958 Class Ring

THIS CERTIFIES THAT the Class of 1958 has finally reached its goal, graduation—that time of year that rushes upon a senior in recollections, memorable feelings, and mixed emotions.

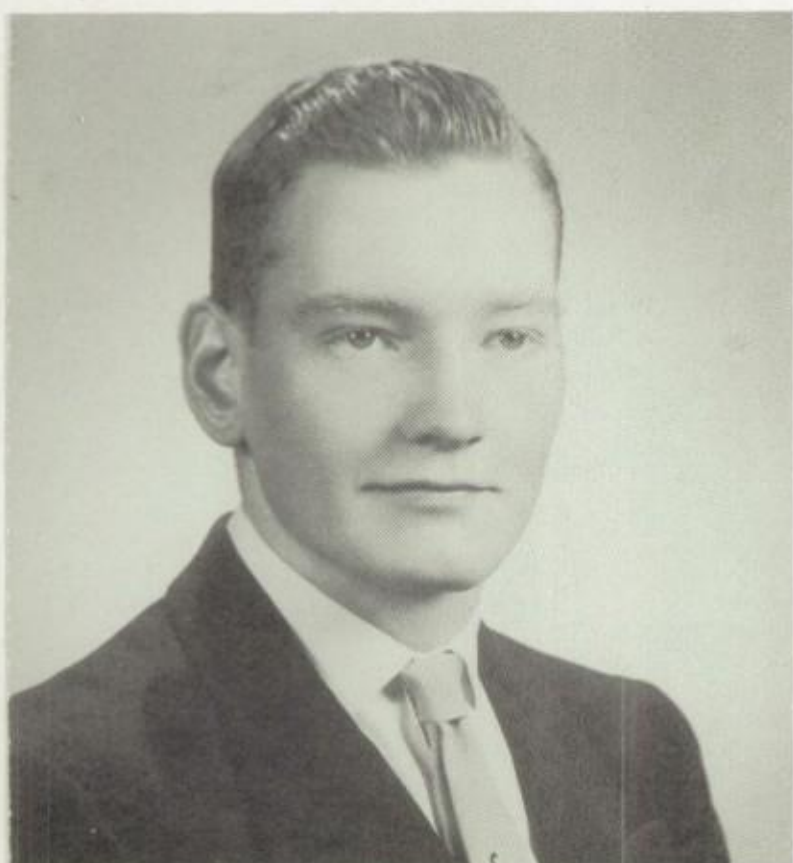

Recollections of friends and incidents of familiar scenes and all the details of a way of life that have become an integral and unforgettable part of a senior's existence are brought to mind as the long-awaited day draws near.

Walking through the halls of Ottawa Hills for the last time, one is filled with a feeling of apprehension that comes from knowing that what this new way of life holds is solely up to one's self.

On the following pages, then, is the Senior Class recorded here in one moment of their high school life.

Last Will And Testament

We, the class of 1958, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and establish this, our last will and testament.

- I, Judy Abbott, do leave "Lady" to the Toledo Zoo.
- I, Jim Acklin, do leave my riotous (?) jokes to Robbie Franklin.
- I, Judy Jo Arnold, do leave my excess pounds to Marcia Wolff.
- I, Laury Biefeld, do leave my good English grades at other schools to Mr. Sattler.
- I, Gretchen Bogan, do leave my disheveled hair to Martha Oliver.
- I, Barry Bryant, do leave my wavy hair to Liberace.
- I, Betty Burch, do leave my limited wardrobe to Cathy Klaus.
- I, Sue Burton, do leave my amiability to Molly Williams.
- I, Casey Carver, do leave my ability to understand jokes to Jill Jones.
- I, Connie Clark, do leave my traffic violations to the junior boys.
- I, Cathy Connelly, do leave my witty sayings to Phil Adams.
- I, Barney Cook, do leave my guitar to Elvis Presley
- I, Mike Cunningham, do leave my ping-pong paddle to Pete Jamieson.

June 5, 1968
The Statler Hotel
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Barber,

We often wondered how our Class of '58 would fare after all your talks on "good, solid scholarship" and our illustrious college careers. We think we found some interesting answers here in New York, so we couldn't help writing you this letter to let you know how our seniors have progressed in ten years.

To our surprise, when we arrived at the hotel, Bill Green, head bellboy, took our luggage to our rooms. At dinner in the hotel dining room that night who should we meet but gentleman Mike Hartman, who makes an excellent maitre d'. He told us that Ned Hendrickson is the hotel's dish washer. Do you remember how intelligent Carol Van Hartesveldt was? Well, returning to our rooms that night, we saw the poor dear scrubbing floors in the hallway.

We decided to turn on the television set in our room, and we came in on a newsreel. It certainly was exciting when we saw Dave Shulak, now a big golf-pro, winning the National Open at our own Inverness, and Jim Tenney receiving the Davis Cup. Imagine our feelings when we saw John Upham, a prominent professor, lecturing on the importance of good study habits! It was wonderful seeing Randy Jones, the famous scholar, being honored at a meeting of the Phi Beta Kappa Society and hearing Barry Bryant, director of the Mayo Clinic, speak. How happy we were to see film clips of Hollywood star Gail Pass having a reunion with her old friend Joan Thelander, now the highest paid star of the Met. We always knew Jim Naylor would go far, but we never expected him to go so far as the moon in the newest rocket ship designed by nuclear physicist Casey Carver. After the news, who should we see but Linda Franklin, with her own disk-jockey show.

Bright and early next morning we set out shopping. To our amazement our cab driver was Patty Lemon! You'll never guess who we saw cleaning streets on the way—Dave Torok, one of your ace students! We decided to go the rest of our way on foot when we saw Sue Miller playing the violin on a street corner for pennies. I know you remember Louise Jacobson, that most intelligent girl. Well, you can imagine how we felt when we saw her selling flowers at the next corner, right next to Charlie Mayer's newsstand. We bought a New York Times from him and read that Tesa Rudy, old Arrowhead worker, is the editor. We couldn't help noticing that Jay Stecher is now ace photographer for Confidential. Street corners must be very popular here for on the next we met Elaine Schnitker, the girl who was so interested in medicine, selling a cure-all for twenty-five cents.

We waved a big hello to Mike Cunningham and Andy Quinn, who were busy digging sewers, and we stopped to see Jim White engineering the construction of a sky scraper. For old time's sake he was employing Rodger Owen as a brick layer. We ran into Dave Molthrop, now a quietly married family man with five children, and we were so glad to see John MacLean, selling insurance door-to-door.

At last on Fifth Avenue, we stepped into a store dealing exclusively with raccoon coats and found Sarah Macomber the owner! She told us that Earl Staelin is now a famous lawyer defending an old friend, Judy Jo Arnold, on charges of disturbing the peace. Sarah also informed us of the biggest auto repair shop in New York, owned by Betty Burch, and the largest baby-sitting business in the world owned by Marsha Stewart and Gail Donahue. Next we went to Macy's where we saw Carol Kohler selling shoes. We were delighted to hear from her that Judy Abbott is the owner of a large chain of gas stations, and Chris Fulghum owns a taxidermist shop. You remember Marie Pope, don't you? Well, she is now working in a bakery off Fifth Avenue, and she just loves her job. I don't know why we stopped at Christian Dior's salon, but we did; and there we saw Laury Biefeld modeling the exquisite creations designed by Ahlene Marshall. We noticed Judy Klag in a swanky Chrysler showroom and walked in, which was a mistake. Gary Woodbury, super salesman, tried to sell us a car because he wanted a raise from manager Bob Patneau. Judy invited us out to the track to see her thorough-bred horses, and she told us that Judy Miller was the owner of some race cars.

Done with our shopping, we went to the United Nations Building to see our representative, Jim Acklin. We saw Diane Steinberg busily leading a tour—in French, no less.

That night we went to see a musical comedy. Artie Smith, who couldn't make it as a professional dancer, ushered us to our seats. Helene Stein was darling in the leading role, and we were very surprised to see Sue Burton, who we thought rather shy, in the chorus line. We visited Helene back stage after the show, and she told us Gretchen Bogan is a modern-dance artist in an off-Broadway show. We weren't astonished to hear that Dick Fain is now a successful comedian, and that Jules Isaacson is his press agent.

On our way to Birdland, that wonderful show-spot owned by Jim Skow, we passed by some posters announcing Connie Clark in a rodeo at Madison Square Garden. Her show was replacing Cathy Connelly's revival meetings there. After Birdland we felt kind of adventurous, so we went to the gambling ship owned by Tom Moor. Tom was filled with excitement because his old buddy, Jim Upson, had just been appointed captain of the S. S. United States.

The next day we decided to take in some thrilling sports events. We were glad to see Chuck Schultz the star of the New York professional football team. We just couldn't miss Barney Cook's performance as the top basketball player with the New York Knickerbockers, but we were rather sad to see Jim Hill mopping up the court during half-time.

With many regrets we rode to La Guardia airport that night for our return trip home. But we were soon cheered when we saw that our pilot would be Jay McGiveran.

Well, Mr. Barber, we hope you've had as much fun learning about the Class of 1958 as we have. We knew you would be glad to hear that your scholarship lectures and our college years were not wasted.

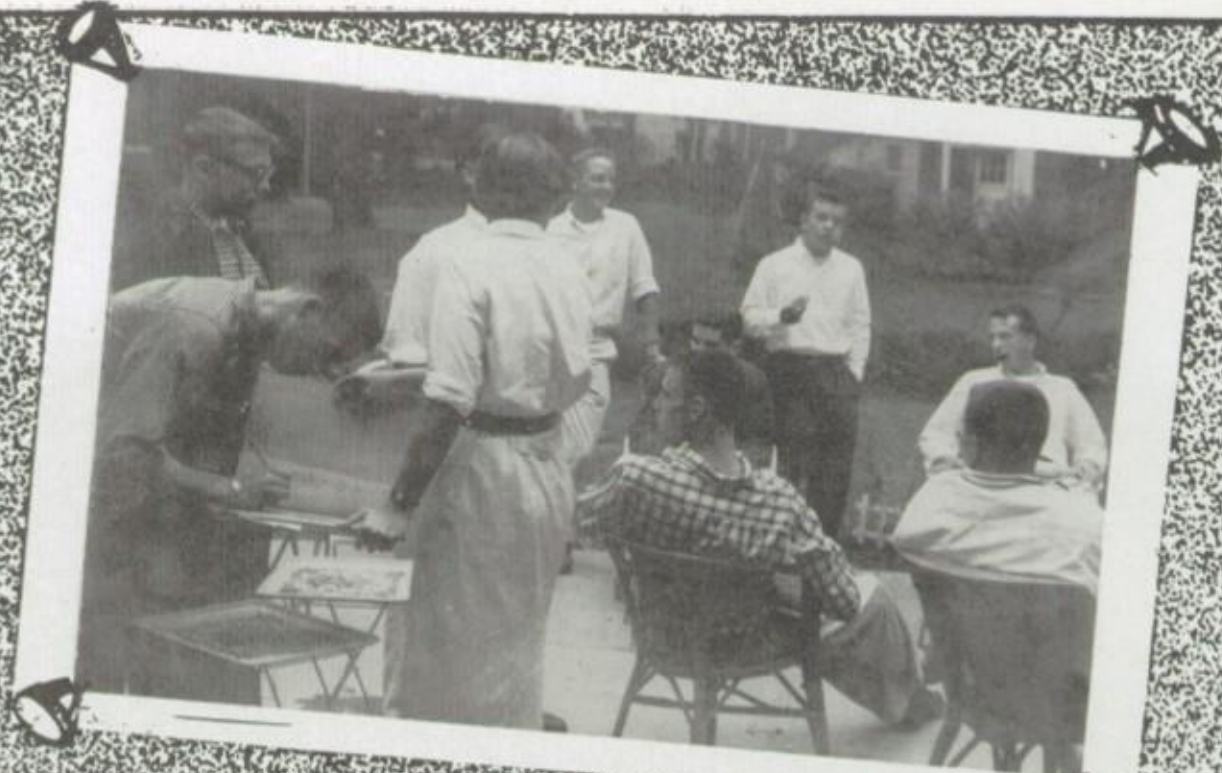

Sincerely yours,
Anne Huntington
Dottie McKisson
Tina Sichel

As the final days of our high school life approach, we think back on the many wonderful things that we did. The parties, the dances, the football games in the snow . . . all of these are memories that we will treasure for the rest of our lives. But perhaps our most vivid recollections will be those of our cars — the red, the white, and the blue Chevy convertibles, the customized Fords, the multi-colored Jeepsters. Seniors' cars can be seen parked in front of O. H. during school hours, being torn apart after school, and jammed with kids headed for fun at all other times.

Seniors experienced a funny feeling when they could at last ask, "Who's having T. G.I.T. tonight?" It was now our class holding the traditional Tuesday night senior parties, and we were certainly taking advantage of the chance. Everyone in Ottawa Hills knew that T.G.I.T. had started when he saw the part of Brookside Road in front of Judy Abbott's house jammed with cars.

Perhaps the most wonderful parties, and the ones which stirred our feelings the most, were the ones our parents gave us for graduation. All their work and planning made the last parties our class would have together unforgettable.

As we look back on the thirteen years of our grade school and high school life, we recall the many joys and sorrows, the many triumphs and defeats that we, as classmates, shared. Now, as the day approaches when we will walk through the halls of Ottawa Hills for the last time as students, we experience mixed emotions — joy, because we have successfully completed our basic education, and regret, because we are leaving behind many friends who have become dear to our hearts. Memories of these friends, however, will always be present. Therefore, in the hope that you, too, will want to remember this year, we leave you the preceding pages.

And every step is a fresh beginning.”*

Senior High Student Council

STANDING: J. Skow. FIRST ROW: M. Staelin, Pitt, Pass, Melhorn, Davis, Baldwin. SECOND ROW: E. Staelin, Acklin, J. Roadhouse, S. Miller, B. Skow, Ratcliff.

Jim Skow, President; Cathy Melhorn, Secretary;
Jim Acklin, Vice President-Treasurer.

Have you ever made use of a student directory? A schedule pencil? Book covers? If so, then the Senior High Student Council has rendered you one of its many services. Beside performing practical services for the school, Council also provides pleasure—the Homecoming Dance, for example. Then, to show the student body just how Council ticks, an open Annual Assembly meets.

Of course, Council is only as good as its officers and members. This year it was fortunate in both. Not contented with ordinary accomplishments, these energetic students worked hard on revision of the demerit system and organization of an Honor Study Hall. Certainly any school would be proud of such an active group.

Junior High Student Council

SEATED: Arenson, Katchka, S. Smith, Kabat, N. Dybvig, Thelander, Preston.
STANDING: Carey, Mulford, Waterman, Newhouse, A. Lumm, S. Smith, E. Owen, Leiphart, S. McKisson, S. Gushman, S. Alexander, Young, Rapopart, Mehring, M. Miller.

The second year has not seemed to bother this year's Junior High Student Council, since it has functioned every bit as efficiently as it did during its first year. It has worked hard at promoting school spirit, and chartered a bus to the Lakeside basketball game to help this cause. This Council replenished its treasury by selling Christmas wrappings so that it could give junior high members more social affairs. These included a Christmas party and separate seventh and eighth grade parties in the spring.

S. Staelein, Vice President; S. Smith, Secretary; Kabat, President; N. Dybvig, Treasurer.

Under the guiding hand of its president, Jim Acklin, this year's Hi-Y club abounded in activity and interest. A hayride, guest speakers, and Camp Storer weekends were on the program. This boy's club has continued to maintain its position as an important activity at Ottawa Hills.

With the direction of Tesa Rudy, Y-Teen president, and Mrs. Frank, the club's advisor, the Y-Teens experienced a successful and varied year. Close co-operation with the Y.W. C.A. added to the activities. Ottawa Hills was very proud when Tesa became one of the queen finalists at the Area Y-Teen Dance.

Library Staff

SEATED: P. Potter, L. Rudy, S. Henderson.
STANDING: Burgie, P. Adams, Stranahan, F. Preston, L. Biefeld.

Assembly Committee

SEATED: Woodbury, Mrs. Meeks, D. McKisson.
STANDING: Burns, M. Ratcliff, E. Graham, L. Williams.

Besides choosing next year's assemblies with regard to student interest and education, Mrs. Meeks' Assembly Committee plans all arrangements, provides introductory speakers and persons to present the colors, and greets the guests when they arrive. Members from each class are chosen to the committee.

ARROWHEAD

FIRST ROW: C. Bower, Gushman, T. Rudy, L. Biefeld.
SECOND ROW: P. Adams, Shulak, B. Green, M. L. Meyers.

Due to the untiring work of its editor, Sally Gushman, its staff, and its advisor, Mrs. Burkhart, the Arrowhead was a paper Ottawa Hills could be justly proud of. Interest was added to the paper in the form of student photographs and articles such as "Player of the Week."

Mesasa Editorial Staff

FIRST ROW: Fulghum, T. Rudy, Sichel, Schnitker, Pass, Abbott, Burch. SECOND ROW: Jacobson, C. Carver, M. Stewart, Donahue, Bogan, Thelander, Stein, Marshall. THIRD ROW: Franklin, S. Miller, D. McKisson, Van Hartesveldt, A. Huntington, Fain, M. Hartman, Cook, Stecher, Owen, Torok, Molthrop, Tenney.

As a comparatively newly organized group in the high school, the Art Club has certainly lost no time in becoming a very important club. The members, under the leadership of their president, Sue Miller, decorated the multipurpose room for the several school dances in addition to making many clever posters for use in the halls.

Leaders of O. H.

Homecoming Queen

With the winning of our football game against St. Francis, the Homecoming weekend began in all its glory. On Saturday night at ten o'clock at the traditional homecoming dance, lovely Marie Pope was crowned our Homecoming Queen for 1957. Marie reigned 'till the culmination of the dance which ended this wonderful weekend.

Dottie McKisson, Carol Van Hartesveldt, Sarah Macomber, Elaine Schnitker.

Area Y-Teen Queen Candidate

Our candidate for the Area Y-Teen Dance was Tesa Rudy. She looked lovely in her red dress at the dance which was held on February 8, 1958 at the Y.W.C.A.

Versatile Tesa Rudy exhibits her leadership as President of Y-Teens.

Area Student Council Queen Candidate

Charming Dottie McKisson represented O.H. at the Area Student Council Dance, February 1, 1958. The student body was proud to have Dottie as their candidate.

Carol Van Hartesveldt and Sarah Macomber

Premier OHHS—20, Elmore—0

In just 16 minutes of play O.H. displayed signs of things to come by whipping Elmore High 20-0. This was the first time in two years we had met Elmore on the gridiron and they were so surprised to see a really good Ottawa Hills team that they were never in the contest.

No. 13 OHHS—40, Troy Luckey—0

Friday the 13th found the Green Arrows winning their 13th in a row by trouncing the Troy Luckey Eleven 40-0. Randy Jones' terrific running ability, combined with good blocking from the line, enabled him to tally four times. Rodger Owen and Jim White each scored once. O.H. ran wild in the second period, scoring 34 points.

No. 14 OHHS—14, North Baltimore—7

O.H. scored its 14th straight and second victory of the season by downing North Baltimore 14-7. North Baltimore put a scare into O.H. by scoring first, however in the second period Jim White passed to Mike Hartman for 35 yards and 6 points. Dave Shulak converted to tie the score. In the last period Rodger Owen threw to Jim White for the last T.D. Shulak again converted.

No. 15 OHHS—27, Delta—6

The Green Arrows registered their 15th victory in a row by turning back Delta High 27-6. Quarterback Jim White passed for two O.H. scores and plunged across on a sneak for a third. Other T.D. makers were Rodger Owen, Mike Hartman, and Randy Jones. Dave Shulak converted two P.A.T.s and Bill Skow placed one through the up-rights.

No. 16 OHHS—52, Elmore—25

Although O.H. chalked up its 16th consecutive triumph, it left much to be desired. The offense was good but the defense was not up to par. In the last ten games they had only allowed 25 points! All of Ottawa Hill's T.D.s were made by three players: Randy Jones, 3; Rodger Owen, 3; and Jim Hill, 2.

No. 17 OHHS—26, Wauseon—0

Ottawa Hills took its 17th straight from Wauseon in its finest victory of the season. Wauseon failed to penetrate the Ottawa Hills 20-yard line, while four of the Green Arrows hit the coveted turf across the goal line. Tackle Jim Tenney blocked a punt and fell on it in the end zone. Barry Bryant in the second period plunged across from two yards out to climax an 84 yard drive. In the third period Jim White tossed to end Mike Hartman and in the last period White scored himself. Conversions were made by Dave Shulak and Jim White.

No. 18 OHHS—21, St. Francis—20

Over 5,000 fans saw Ottawa Hills display the type of determination that helped establish its win skein. In the first quarter, Hartman hauled in a White pass and went for our first score. In the next period White tossed for a score, to Owen. At half-time the score stood 14-14. In the third period St. Francis scored, but Owen blocked the extra point. In the last period St. Francis lost their poise and O.H. worked harder. White scored on a sneak and Shulak booted his third consecutive point to wrap up the game.

No. 19 OHHS—32, Rising Sun—13

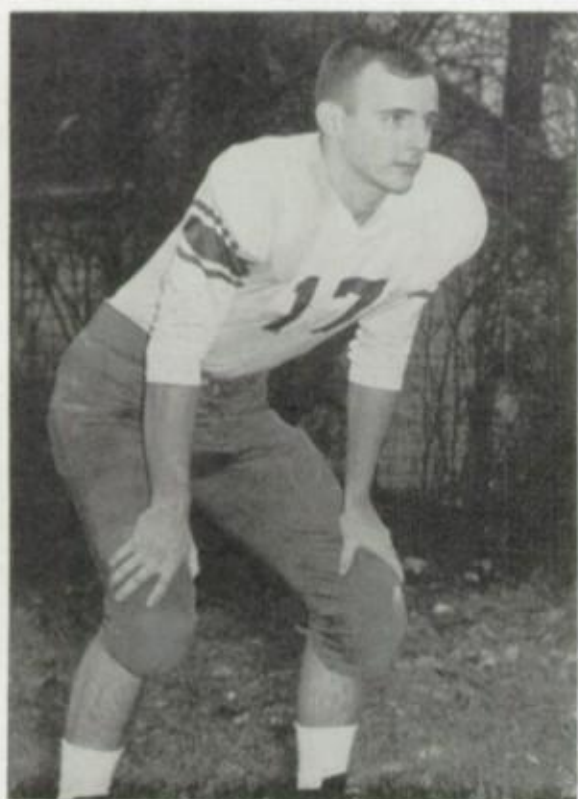

The Green Arrows made it 19 in a row by pounding Rising Sun 32-13. They scored in all but the second period and held a slim 13-6 half-time lead. Ottawa Hills touchdowns: Mike Hartman (pass from Jim White); Merv Sharfman (run); Randy Jones (plunge); Jim White (run); Jim Hill (pass from White). Placements were registered by Barry Bryant and Dave Shulak.

No. 20 OHHS—52, Lakeside—0

Ottawa Hills gained its 20th straight win and added another link to its three year winning streak by routing Lakeside 52-0. The seniors ended their high school career terrifically, playing practically the whole game and scoring all but 6 points which were tallied by sophomore quarterback John Roadhouse. In the other scoring it was: Jim Hill (3), Randy Jones, Earl Staelin, Rodger Owen, and Mike Hartman. Points after touchdown were booted by Dave Shulak (3) and Barry Bryant.

Tribute

Many thanks and congratulations are offered to our two new coaches, Head Coach Norman Niedermeier and his assistant Jerry Gonser. Having a perfect season in their first year here at Ottawa Hills and as high school coaches, these two established a record attained by only a few outstanding coaches. Again we say congratulations and hope that the teams they coach in the future will be as successful as Ottawa Hills.

Under the splendid leadership and guidance of the officers and Miss MacDonald, the girls' athletic program was filled with a great variety of sports to interest all members. The hockey team consisted of many enthusiastic girls who combined their skill to win 6 of 9 games. Following hockey, volleyball, a game of speed, precision, and skill, was an excellent team game, allowing a large number of girls to participate. Basketball proved very popular and developed co-ordination and team work. The teams had a very successful season. Bowling and badminton filled the after school hours with much pleasure and activity. Lots of fresh air and fun were enjoyed in the spring hours of softball. To end the year the club gave a wonderful banquet, at which an award was presented to the most valuable player in each sport and to the most outstanding girl for the entire year. Yes, this was a terrific year!

Glass
Has Made A Difference

Now is the time to reflect upon the "good ole' days" in school—the many friends, your favorite teachers, sports and dances and parties. But when looking at today's school architecture, we think you'll agree that glass has made a difference!

Here's picture-proof that school corridors don't have to be dark and dreary tunnels. No longer must walls be solid and opaque. Today, more attention is being paid to daylight and view.

When reflecting upon the advantages of this glass age, we think you'll agree that the "good new days" are better.
